

Prevention of Family Violence: A Cross Cultural Perspective

Source of Image: medicblog999.files.wordpress.com

PLEASE SAVE
THIS DATE!

American Academy of Pediatrics

DEDICATED TO THE HEALTH OF ALL CHILDREN™

New York Chapters 2 & 3

Date:

Wednesday, October 20th, 2010

Time: 3:30 pm—5:30pm

Maimonides Medical Center Campus (Schreiber Auditorium— 2nd Floor Administration Building)-
4802 Tenth Avenue, Brooklyn NY 11219

The collaborative efforts of members of Maimonides Committee for the Prevention of Family Violence has culminated into a 2-hour symposium exploring the theme of prevention of a very taboo topic across all the cultures encountered in the “melting pot” we call Brooklyn. Key-note speaker, Wanda Lucibello, Chief of the Special Victims Division for the Brooklyn DA’s Office. She is well-known throughout the country as an expert on domestic violence issues. Presentation includes a panel of experts available to answer questions of attendees and closing skit by FACES International.

Please join us.